

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 474
By McDonald

A RESOLUTION to honor Randall Burr Howeth, Sr. for his many years of astute and laudable service to the people of White House.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that we should honor those generous individuals who have given of their time to improve the lives of the young people in the State of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, Randall Burr Howeth, Sr. is one such exemplary individual, having contributed immeasurably to the football program at White House High School; we especially honor him for the indoor football facility at White House High School that will bear his name from now on; and

WHEREAS, born in Woodbury in 1945, Burr Howeth moved to Nashville in 1948 and played football while attending Cumberland High School, from which he graduated in 1964; and

WHEREAS, unable to leave the sport of football, Burr Howeth began working as a member of the Hendersonville High School Quarterback Club; in 1973, he joined the White House Jaycees, and in 1977, he began coaching White House Jr. Pro Football for five, six, and seven-year-olds; and

WHEREAS, after many years as a Coach, Vice-President, and President, Burr Howeth was selected the White House Jr. Pro Football Commissioner in 1987; and

WHEREAS, from 1980 until the present, Burr Howeth has been the Press Box Clock Operator at White House High School's Leonard Wynick Memorial Field; and

WHEREAS, with unswerving dedication to White House, Burr Howeth has also been a member of the White House Quarterback Club since 1988 and has served as President and Vice-President many times; in 1998, he helped with the planning of the Quarterback Club's incorporation and is currently the Vice-President and a member of the Board of Directors; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to accolades for his many fine efforts, Burr Howeth has also been awarded the Citizens Award and the Appreciation Award by White House High School; and

WHEREAS, an unselfish man whose motto is, "If I can help just one child to stay out of trouble in each school year of volunteer work, it's worth my time," Mr. Howeth has long been a legend in White House for his devotion to White House High School and to its football program; and

WHEREAS, his many professional and personal accomplishments aside, Burr Howeth is perhaps most grateful for the love and companionship he shares with his wife of 38 years, Patricia, his children, Rhonda Mansfield, Randy Howeth, Jr., and Jennifer Malone, and his grandchildren, Joshua and Emily Mansfield and Isaac and Emma Howeth; and

WHEREAS, Burr Howeth, who gives freely of his time to help the youth, is the epitome of a model Tennessean and truly earns this State its nickname, "The Volunteer State"; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE SENATE CONCURRING, that we hereby honor and congratulate Randall Burr Howeth, Sr. for his many years of laudable service to White House High School and especially for the indoor football facility to which his name will forevermore be affixed.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
